Battle Cries Started by Democrats

By GEORGE F. BARTSCH

LITTLE ROCK (P)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus pleaded today for Democratic Party unity as state Democrats wound up their two-day convention in Little Rock.

His speech was frequently interrupted by applause from the some 300 delegates which heard the final speech.

The delegates cheered enthusiastically when Faubus said: "It is possible there is someone here who doesn't like me—or perhaps it's Bill Fulbright, Oren Harris, Jim Trimble or one of these other nominees. If it is, let me ask you this question, if you were the nominee and I was in your place, what would you have me do?"

Faubus said the party members in this case should abide by the golden rule.

The governor said the Democratic Party in Arkansas had its membership and drew its strength from every section of the state and every segment of the people. "Any group," he said, "anywhere in the state, finds at almost any time a spokesman in the Democratic Party."

In a statement of acceptance before his speech, Faubus directed his fire at the Republican Party in general and the Arkansas Republicans in particular. He said election of a Republican administration in Arkansas would be of benefit to no one but the Rockefeller.

"The choice of the people of this state in the coming general election is between the Rockefeller and the Democratic team which you have at this convention declared to be the Democratic nominees."

Faubus said Nelson Rockefeller is running for the Republican nomination for president. "Winthrop hopes to help him in Arkansas, first by gathering up the Republican delegation to the Republican convention, and then by trying to carry the state for him should he win the nomination."

Faubus said he also has been told Winthrop Rockefeller wanted to be governor of Arkansas.

Faubus drew loud applause when he said "And if any of you can tell me where the philosophy of the Rockefeller is any different from that which we most dislike that emanates from Washington, then I will be glad to let you explain it to me."

The governor also had harsh words for a segment of the Democratic Party which he termed the bogus or pseudo-liberals. He added that members of this group also may be found in the Republican Party.

Faubus condemned these pseudo-liberals for their wavering and indecisiveness in domestic and foreign affairs.

The convention adopted a platform, certified candidates and re-elected state officers today.

Re-elected were President Tom Harper of Fort Smith, Vice President Mrs. Alvin Foster of Booneville, and Secretary Leon Catlett of Little Rock.

The platform suggested by the party's Resolutions and Platform Committee Wednesday was adopted unanimously without change.

Names of Democrats nominated in recent party primaries were read and delegates voted unanimously to certify them and place their names on the November general election ballot.

A hearty review of campaign purposes, the platform takes a swipe at the Republican party for "evading the state's compulsory primary law," solidly backs the Faubus administration and the congressional delegation and cries, "We are not only going to beat it (The GOP), but we will pulverize it."

Fulbright twitted Arkansas Republicans for calling themselves conservatives.

"Those who tell us we must reverse the programs of historical change, that we must destroy the partnership between people and

New Post Office at Emmet

Dedication Set for 3 p. m. Monday

Emmet's new post office will be dedicated at 3 p. m. on Sept. 16, 1962. Postmaster Charles B. Ward announced today.

The new facility, located at Emmet is part of the Post Office Department's lease construction program, the local postmaster announced.

Under this program, investment financing is used to obtain needed facilities which remain under private ownership, pay local taxes to this community and are leased to the Federal Government.

At the same time, the need for large outlays of money from the federal treasury for construction purposes is eliminated.

Like most of the new postal buildings that are going up across the country, this post office is leased to the Post Office Dept. This gives the Dept. more flexibility in adapting its building program to changes in mail volume, transportation and the population, Mr. Ward said.

The Department is now concentrating on constructing new postal units only where they are most urgently needed. In areas where it is practical to do so, existing buildings are undergoing renovation.

"The fact that Emmet has been chosen for a more modern post office," Postmaster Ward said, "reflects credit on our growing contribution to the economy and life of the nation."

"Our patrons will derive more enjoyment from doing business here, their mail will be handled more efficiently and this building and its up-to-date equipment will enable our postal employees to work under the best of conditions," he said.

"The new facility," he added, "will be a link with a postal system that today has over 4500 postal installations. This system serves more than 180 million Americans and handles over two-thirds of the world's mail. Over 500,000 postal employees are handling about 65 billion pieces of mail a year, including over a billion parcels," the postmaster added.

"National population increases will add nearly 3,000,000 people to the population in the next 12 months, with about one and a half million marriages and the establishment of 683,000 new households, including many in this community," the postmaster noted. "This will be reflected in increasing demands for more postal service here," he said.

"Mail business in this area has gone up approximately 50 percent in the last five years," he added. The guest speaker will be W. H. Halbert, Deputy Director, St. Louis Regional Office. Invitations have been extended to Congressmen Oren Harris, Senators Fulbright and McClellan.

Election Laws Under Study

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A rough draft of the proposed reconfiguration of the state primary election laws has been taken under study by its legislative backers.

Purpose of the reconfiguration would be to eliminate confusion and some archaic provisions. No substantial changes were expected.

The research staff of the Legislative Council, which is making the study, turned the draft over to Reps. Jim Brandon and Joel Y. Ledbetter. The two Pulaski County legislators were co-sponsors of a 1961 House concurrent resolution.

Brandon said the study eventually would include general election laws, but that this could not be completed in time for the 1963 General Assembly, to which the revised primary code will be submitted.

Demoted Agri Official Back on Old Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman announced today that a department official demoted in connection with the Billie Sol Estes grain storage operations has been restored to his post.

The official is Carl J. Miller, a career employee of 25 years. He was reinstated as chief of the U.S. Warehouse Act branch of the department's marketing service.

The post pays $13,250 a year. Miller had approved bonds posted by Estes, Pecos, Tex., financier to protect the department against possible loss on surplus grains stored in his warehouses. "The size of the bond—$700,000—had been criticized by some members of Congress as being insufficient and indicating favored treatment for Estes."

Freeman made his announcement in testimony prepared for a hearing of the Intergovernmental Relations subcommittee of the House, headed by Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., which is investigating the Estes grain storage operations.

The reinstatement of Miller underscored the major theme of Freeman's statement—a contention that the Texas financier received no favored treatment from the department in the handling of grain. This testimony paralleled that offered before a Senate investigation subcommittee contending that Estes received no favored treatment in his controversial cotton allotment operations.

"The facts," Freeman said, "completely refute any charges that Estes received favoritism in the determination of the amount of his bond, and any further charges that the bonding policy changed when this administration came into office."

Kennedy Plans Statement on Cuba Situation

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was reported today to be planning a forthright statement at his news conference tonight on the Communist military buildup in Cuba.

Sen. Herbert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., gave newsmen this report after a morning White House meeting of Democratic congressional leaders with the President.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the Senate Democratic floor leader, said he was sure Kennedy would have a great deal more to say about the Cuban situation at the news conference.

The congressional leaders said they had a lengthy discussion with the President on his request for standby authority to call 150,000 Reserves to active duty.

A resolution to grant this authority has run into Republican demands in the Senate for tougher and more specific action. Some of the GOP members want to put in amendments calling for strong action against Cuba or any other Communist moves.

Humphrey, assistant Democratic floor leader, said he hoped that the Senate would reject these Republican moves. He asserted that Republicans were trying to make Cuba an issue in the current congressional election campaigns and termed this "mischievous and reckless."

He hinted that Democrats may offer a substitute for varied earlier GOP proposals.

In any event, Humphrey said the Senate plans to call up and pass the Reserves measure before it quits for the day.

Mansfield, in a separate interview, said he hoped Congress would come up finally with a bipartisan approach.

Two Charged in Moonshine Operation

W. M. Harding, 42, white, was charged with possessing an untaxed liquor still and William Tyree, 61, Negro, was charged with possessing a still, carrying on the business of a distiller and making mash and possessing untaxed whiskey in Federal Court in Texarkana yesterday.

Both waived hearings before U. S. Commissioner Thelma Winham and Harding's bond was set at $750 and Tyree's at $500.

They were arrested yesterday by Sheriff Jimmie Griffin, ATU and ABC Officers. Tyree was arrested at the still, 10 miles north of Hope near DeAnn and Harding was arrested at his home nearby.

Officers also seized about 1,200 gallons of liquor, destroyed 1,900 gallons of mash and seized an old model truck and destroyed two large 200 gallon capacity copper pots.

The still apparently had been in operation for some time as the moonshiners had built sheds to cover the operation. It was located on a farm which Harding leases.

Was Advised to Go to California

LOS ANGELES (AP)—James Lee Stafford, a bricklayer from Leland (Chicot County), Ark., was hunting near his hometown on Sept. 1 when his shotgun accidentally discharged. Several pellets struck his eye.

Stafford underwent an operation for removal of his right eye in Los Angeles Wednesday. He told authorities an Arkansas doctor advised him to "Go to Los Angeles where you can get free medical care."

A case worker for Travelers Aid said Stafford, 30, and his wife arrived in Los Angeles Monday without funds. They had sold a tire for the last tankful of gasoline.

The Bureau of Public Assistance referred Stafford to General Hospital. A hospital administrator said Stafford will get a bill for medical services but deferred payments probably will be worked out.

Stafford refused to talk to newsmen or pose for pictures. A doctor who treated him said Stafford could not remember the name of the doctor in Arkansas who advised him to come to Los Angeles.

Russia Uses Armored Cars in Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet armored cars drove into West Berlin again today to change the guard at the Red war memorial despite pressure from the Western Allies for a switch to buses. The British halted them long enough for an interpreter to give a message to the Soviet commander.

Informed sources said the British, in concert with the United States and France, had earlier given the Soviets a Saturday deadline to stop driving armored cars to the memorial, which lies in the British sector close to the Brandenburg Gate border of the divided city.

The three armored personnel carriers were stopped today as they left the memorial area which is tightly closed to the public.

The Soviets have been using armored cars since Aug. 21, after buses used previously were stoned by West Berliners angry over the shooting of a young refugee at the wall.

The Western Allies have made clear their belief there is no reason for the Soviets to continue coming in armored cars. Since the August incidents there has been no more stoning. By crossing at Sandkrug Bridge the guard now follows a much shorter route through less densely populated areas.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Producers started 3,945,000 broiler chicks during the week ended Sept. 6 — five per cent less than in the previous week, the Crop Reporting Service estimated today.

Of the total placements in the state 3,367,000 chicks were hatched in Arkansas and 578,000 came from other states.

The estimated total of 5,141,000 eggs set for broiler-type chicks in Arkansas during the week was 2 per cent above the previous week, the agency said.

British Talk Over Common Market

LONDON (AP)—The British cabinet met today to discuss the general commonwealth assault on Britain's proposed entry into the European Common Market. Prime Minister Harold Macmillan conspicuously stayed away from the meeting.

Macmillan apparently absented himself from the cabinet session because he was anxious to continue a round of informal talks with Commonwealth premiers and anxious to avoid creating an impression of emergency in the midst of the summit conference of 16 Commonwealth countries.

Deputy Prime Minister R. A. Butler presided over the cabinet meeting and gave the ministers an assessment of the Commonwealth's opposition to Britain's linkup with the European community.

The Commonwealth conference, meeting here since Monday, divided into subcommittees for detailed study of the implications of British membership in the Common Market.

Group to Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The annual convention of the Arkansas Society of Registered Professional Sanitarians will be held here today and Friday. About 80 persons are expected to attend.

Farm Bureau Women Name Officers

The Hempstead County Farm Bureau monthly meeting was well attended last night with 25 members present, according to Warren Butler, president.

An interested report was given by Audrey Wilson on a tour of five states that he made along with representatives from other counties. Also a report was made to the group by Wade Benefield on a trip he and Calvin Caldwell made to the County Agents Assn. meeting in Las Cruces, N.M.

Several of the Farm Bureau leaders attend a Forestry promotion meeting in Camden last week. Plans are being discussed on the Forestry promotion week.

The 1963 Farm Bureau Women's Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Mary Spates, chairman, Mrs. Cleo Smith, vice chairman and Mrs. Royce Pitts, secretary. A planned program for the year was discussed.

Policy Development committee was elected as follows: Chairman, N. B. Coleman, Field Crop, R. E. Garrett, Livestock, Cecil Bittle and Burgess Garrett, Poultry, Cleo Smith, Dairy, Audrey Wilson and David Meloy; Fruit and vegetable, Jimmy Arnold and Forestry, Monroe Samuel.

County wide Resolution meeting will be held, Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present at this important meeting.

Says Stephens Has the Pledges

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sixty-eight members of the Arkansas House of Representatives have signed pledges to vote for W. R. (Will) Stephens for speaker of the House in 1965, the Arkansas Gazette reported in today's editions.

Stephens is representative from Grant County and chairman of the board and president of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. He is one of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' closest political friends.

Many of the pledges were reportedly obtained during the Democratic State Convention Wednesday. If the 68 are still in the House in 1965 and vote for Stephens, he would win the speakership since they represent more than half the 100 members.

Stephens has said he is not actively seeking the job, but will take it if he is drafted.

Salvation Army to Visit Workers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Mexican braceros working in northeast Arkansas cotton fields will be visited for the next two weeks by 12 Salvation Army officers, five of whom are Mexicans.

Maj. Don Vendeville, Little Rock commander of the Salvation Army, said the officers would leave Little Rock Friday morning.

This is the fourth year of the program, which includes street meetings, person-to-person contacts, help with personal problems and distribution of 2,000 copies of the Gospels of Luke and John, copies of the Mexican edition of the Salvation Army magazine and 5,000 copies of the New Testament in Spanish.

The 12 officials will be headed by Lt. Col. Harry Ward of New Orleans, division commander of the regional office and co-ordinator of the bracero missionary program. They will divide into two teams and will cover Poinsett, Mississippi and Craighead counties in two mobile canteens. Their headquarters will be in Jonesboro.

County Joins Mass Polio Immunization

Hempstead County will join the statewide mass oral polio immunization program with vaccine being administered at the Health Center, on Courthouse Square, at 1 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 30. It was announced today by Dr. J. W. Branch, president of the Hempstead Medical Society which is undertaking the program.

Everybody is urged to take advantage of this program. A small fee of 25 cents per person will be charged but if you feel you can't afford that much, come anyway, and there will be no charge. Dr. Branch said the fee would just about take care of expenses.

The vaccine is in liquid form and the Type I will be given orally. A doctor, nurse and pharmacist will be on hand. Clerical help will be furnished by the Hempstead Polio Chapter.

It is the hope of the Arkansas Medical Association to immunize every person in Arkansas over six weeks old.

Timber in Millwood Site Up for Sale

The Tulsa Army Engineer District has announced sale of approximately 6,341.50 acres of standing timber and has set a date of Oct. 2 for opening of sealed bids.

The timber is divided into "compartments," with 12 such compartments in the sale. Smallest compartment is 107 acres in size, and largest compartment has 960 acres involved.

The timber located for sale is in Howard, Sevier and Little River Counties, Ark. and is to be disposed of in connection with construction of Millwood Dam and Reservoir, which is under supervision of the Tulsa District.

The successful bidder will be permitted to "clear cut" all timber located within his compartment and no limitation is placed on the size or species of trees to be harvested.

Various areas within the clearing area will have to be cleared by a certain date, while various other areas have a still later date. Part of the timber has a time limit of three years to be cleared out. After the expiration dates as specified for the various areas, the timber becomes the property of the government without recourse by the bidder.

Various types and classifications of timber are in the sale area. The standing timber is subject to inspection by contacting the Millwood Dam Resident Engineer, Ashdown, Ark. Bids will be opened at 10 a. m., Oct. 2, 1962 at the Real Estate Project Office, Corps of Engineers, 102½ North 2nd St., DeQueen, Ark.

Car Driving Study Planned at Yerger

Students of Yerger High School will have an opportunity at 10:30 a. m. Friday, Sept. 14, to see for themselves how a false sense of security often leads the driver of a modern automobile into the danger zone and trouble. The students will participate in a driving demonstration, Will V. Rutherford announced today.

The demonstration, which will be in two parts, will be given under the direction of James L. Burns, Assistant Director of Safety, Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation, sponsors of the program. A 10 minute lecture on traffic safety by Mr. Burns will precede the showing of "Death on the Highway," a 20 minute film showing the results of actual accidents by careless people.

The demonstration will be given at 6th and Walnut Streets.

government are not in reality conservatives at all, but fear-stricken radicals who refuse to face either the challenges or opportunities of the future."

His opponent, Dr. Kenneth Jones, was consistently tried to pin the liberal label on him. Jones terms himself a conservative. Fulbright said, "The true conservative is one who recognizes that the state and the nation is a living thing that grows and changes and that the way to preserve the principles and values of our past is not by forever repeating them in blind and dogmatic ritual but by bringing these principles to bear upon the solution of the problems of our own times."

The convention also dealt Wednesday, as it is expected to do today, with housekeeping affairs.

It altered the method of naming members to conform to the reduction of Arkansas congressional districts from six to four.

Under the newly adopted system, five members will be named from each of the four districts. Previously three were named from the six. Also under the new rules, two members from each district will be women, where only one woman served formerly.

Members named during county delegation caucuses, by district, were:

First: Frank Barton, Black Oak; Brooks Sheeks, Corning; Dan Feiten Jr., Marianna; Mrs. Dan Purvis, Lepanto; Mrs. Beverly Lambert, West Memphis.

Second: Fred Pickens Jr., Newport; Mrs. Van Mills, North Little Rock; Helen Taylor, Little Rock; Mrs. Martin Hawkins, Morrilton; Horace Tarkenton, Searcy.

No Clashes But Chinese Enter India

By ALAN KENNEDY

NEW DELHI (AP)—The Indian government said today Red Chinese troops have "appeared in the vicinity" of an Indian outpost on the disputed northeast frontier but said "there has been no clash."

Unofficial but reliable sources said an estimated 300 Chinese soldiers invaded Indian territory Tuesday and surrounded a post a mile inside the Himalayan border manned by 30 men of the Assam Rifles.

There was no indication of any fighting. One unconfirmed report from the northeast said the Chinese disarmed the Indian troops and advanced nine miles farther into India.

A spokesman for the foreign ministry announced: "Some Chinese forces have appeared in the vicinity of one of our posts in the area of the junction of Bhutan, the Northeast Frontier Agency and Tibet. There has been no clash."

Conflicting unofficial reports indicated the Chinese might be pressing toward Towang, an important Buddhist monastery town 15 miles inside the border. Three years ago the Dalai Lama, fleeing from the Red Chinese across the 14,210-mile-high pass from Tibet, made a stopover at Towang.

The Chinese Communists claim the Northeast Frontier Agency's 3,000 square miles—a mountainous, largely unsettled area—belongs to Tibet. India maintains the border is the McMahon line, drawn by the British along the

Plant at Walnut Ridge in Production

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP)—The Vulcan Corp., has begun production of plastic shoe lasts at its Walnut Ridge plant.

The factory formerly turned out wood lasts for use in the manufacture of shoes.

Company officials said two other Vulcan plants will continue to produce wood lasts. They said the reason for the change at Walnut Ridge was that shoe manufacturers in the area preferred to work with plastic.

Officials said the company invested $150,000 in the plant in order to convert to the new product. Other changes required another $100,000, making a total outlay of about $250,000 as part of the conversion.

The Chinese also claim 12,000 square miles of Ladakh, a bleak and barren plateau near the western end of the Chinese-Indian border. There have been at least four skirmishes there this summer. Ladakh on Indian maps is part of the state of Kashmir.

Chinese troops have entered the Northeast Frontier Agency seven times in the past six years but withdrawn each time. Three incursions were in the same area just east of the mountain state of Bhutan where the Chinese entered Tuesday.

Man Electrocut

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Edward G. Hulton, 25, of Carlisle, Penn., was electrocuted Wednesday while working with wiring on his house trailer here. He had just moved the trailer from Judsonia. Officers said Hulton's wife inside the trailer, and his three small children, playing nearby, were not injured. Hulton was a validation engineer on Titan Missile construction jobs.

IN-Laws Treat Her Like Hill-Billy

By HEEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband and I live with his folks and it is hell. Because I am from the South, they treat me like a hill-billy. My ancestors may not have come over on the Mayflower, but they were ladies and gentlemen of Southern Cavalier stock which is just as good, if not better.

True, we're poor, but what old Southern family isn't? I tell my in-laws that the Yankees reduced us to our state of impoverishment and that their ancestors probably had a hard time doing — they being Northerners. We fight the War between the States — I refuse to call it Civil War — every night at the table.

My husband blames me for starting the rows. He's not home to hear what goes on during the day. My mother-in-law starts the sniping as soon as he leaves for the office.

Thank goodness, my baby looks like her daddy, not me, she'll say in her quiet, venomous way, cuddling it all the while. This cuts deeply.

I was queen of the Peach Blossom Festival in our town and had offers from several modeling agencies. Instead, I married her son. We love each other and adore our baby but this much I know — the in-laws are trying their best to break us up. If we stay here much longer they'll succeed.

My husband has a job in a local law office as clerk. It doesn't pay enough to support the three of us, but if we went to a big city I could get a modeling job and probably make more than he. The problem then is, of course, what would we do with our baby? His mother would take her but I don't want that. My mother would take her but he doesn't want this. Please help me. —Confused

Dear Confused: If you and the in-laws can't sit down to a meal without fighting the Civil War all over again, move. But on general principles it's wiser to go anyway, for if it weren't the war between the states, it would be something else.

Naturally you and your husband are taking a chance but so have millions of other young couples. No matter how small your man's income, it is possible to live with it, provided the will to do is there. That, to a great extent, is largely up to the wife.

Whether it be box-car, trailer or garret, you should take it as a lark, and where there is love, it can be just that.

Your husband is the provider and you the homemaker. Later on, when your little girl is older, you might try a modeling career.

Dear Helen: There is one word for my mother: kill-joy. I'm an only daughter. My brothers and Dad will all be having a happy time until along she comes with a long face and says, "Some folks have all the time there is for talk and none for work."

We break our necks to please her. I bring her breakfast to her in bed, clean house, iron my own clothes but it's no use. If I bring a girl friend home from school, which isn't often, she'll start up the vacuum cleaner or washing machine.

Her main trouble is that she missed out on everything when she was young and now doesn't want anybody to have fun. She makes everyone of us so nervous we shake all over when she starts ranting. What can we do? —Despairing Daughter

Dear Despairing: From what you say, your mother's trouble is evidently psychological. Talk to the family doctor. Ignore her jibes and remember this: She can't kill you for you unless you let her. Be patient, understanding instead of resentful; and feel sorry for her instead of angry at her. She is her own worst enemy.

Dear Helen: What can be done about an amorous doctor? Mine frightens me by his unwanted attentions. It wouldn't be so bad if I weren't happily married and expecting a baby. I like the man but only as a physician. This is

Stock Market at Virtual Standstill

By RICHARD H. HOENIG
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices were at a virtual standstill early this afternoon with small gains equaling small declines. Volume was a bit higher than Wednesday but still light.

Comparatively few changes amounted to as much as a full point among key issues. Even most of the usually volatile growth issues showed nothing more than fractional changes.

The list was irregular at the opening and was stalled just about dead end all morning, temporarily halting a two-day advance that carried the popular market averages to their highest level of the month.

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up .1 at 223.7 with industrials ahead .2, rails up .1 and utilities off .2.

Prime economic and business news remained slim and investor interest in the market showed no improvement.

The Commerce Department reported cash dividends paid last month by corporations which issue public reports were 66 per cent above August a year ago. This lifted eight-month payments 7 per cent ahead of the corresponding 1961 period.

Another likely cause for investor hesitancy was the scheduled news conference of President Kennedy after the close of the market. There were indications he would make a forthright statement on the Communist military buildup in Cuba. Various tense international situations have unsettled the market recently.

Rev. G. W. Hardcastle
THE REV. G. W. HARDCASTLE, superintendent of the Arkansas District of the Assemblies of God, will speak at 10:55 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. evangelistic rally services Sunday at First Assembly of God. A minister since 1925, the Rev. Mr. Hardcastle is an outstanding state leader and preacher. Mrs. Hardcastle will accompany her husband. A dinner at the noon hour will be served in Fellowship Hall.

Aircraft and utility issues were a shade higher. Steels, motors, metals and electronics fell a bit. Chemicals, rails and oils were thoroughly irregular.
At noon the Dow Jones industrial average was off .42 at 65.92. Corporate bonds were mixed and U.S. governments unchanged.
The Confederate Soldiers' home six miles east of Little Rock, was opened on December 1, 1890.

Bids Are Taken
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Army Engineers said Wednesday bids will be opened Oct. 17 on a $200,000 bank stabilization project at 11 locations on the Arkansas River from Fergus Crossing to Davis Lake.

River Work Bids
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Army Engineers said Wednesday W. D. Jeffrey of Fort Smith was apparent low bidder, at $705,200 on a bank stabilization project on the Arkansas River near Fort Smith. Estimated cost of the project was $829,492. The work will be on both sides of the river at Harolds Beach, eight miles east of Fort Smith.

Broyles Lists His Three Deep Grid Lineups

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Frank Broyles, head football coach at the University of Arkansas, named his three-deep lineups Wednesday for the Razorbacks' first game, subject to injuries necessitating changes.

The Potters open in Little Rock Sept. 22 against Oklahoma State University in the War Memorial Stadium in a night game.

Broyles nominated 39 players to man his Big Red. Wild Hogs and Tush Hogs units, and 17 of those players were sophomores.

The first-year men included Ronnie Caveness of Houston, Tex., a 20-pound weakside guard for the Big Red unit and Stan Sparks of Amarillo, Tex., a 188-pound wingback, also with the Big Red.

The Wild Hogs unit had four sophomores and the Tush Hogs unit had only one player that wasn't a sophomore—junior center Dick Hatfield of Helena.

The Lineups did not include Garland Ridenour, a tailback from Fort Smith, indicating Broyles may redshirt the stand-out sophomore this season.

Ridenour, formerly a quarterback, gained 12 yards in the Red White game in Little Rock this spring and led the 1961 freshman team to a 5-0 season.

Broyles placed several players at various positions.

He put Tommy Brasher of El Dorado at weakside guard with Caveness. They'll play linebacker when the Big Red is on defense.

Center Jerry Lineberger of Texarkana will play on offense, but Caveness and Brasher will handle the defensive duties and Lineberger will not be in on defense.

Fullback Danny Brabham of Greenberg, La., will alternate with Billy Joe Moody of North Little Rock on a defense-offense rotation basis.

Brabham will go most of the offense and Moody, at monster man, will play most of the defense for the Big Red. Brabham is listed with the Wild Hogs unit.

Broyles said at Press Day Monday at Fayetteville that Moody was a fine offensive back, but he was a spectacular defender and the coach would rather use him where he will do the most good.

Punter Tommy Moore of Fort Smith will share the Big Red wingback slot with Sparks.

The Razorbacks went through their last tough defensive scrimmage Wednesday, with the Wild Hogs facing off against the Big Red.

Broyles said in the past he has used only five or six sophomores on his playing units. The reason that 17 sophomores are listed on the playing units this year is because of the three unit system, installed for the first time at Arkansas this season.

Broyles said the lineups will stand for the OSU game, unless an injury forces him to make a change, but there is one doubtful aspect.

Quarterback Billy Moore of Little Rock is still bothered with a cracked rib, and there is a possibility he may not play Sept. 22. Moore did not take part in the scrimmage Wednesday.

Moore is expected to be physically fit for the game, but Broyles has not said whether he will play.

Brabham and the Wild Hogs pleased Broyles Wednesday, but the Big Red unit did not.

"Danny handed out the head-aches," the red-headed coach said. "He ran over at least three of our best tacklers."

On two series of downs, Brabham bulldozed his way for yardage without exceptional blocks, running through, over and around tacklers.

The Wild Hogs and the Big Red worked on goal line defense.

"The Wild Hogs got the best of the scrimmage," Broyles said.

"They did it on desire. I am pleased to learn that my defensive unit can defend, but I had expected more out of the Big Red."

Sea Story Enacted at Aquarium Day Away From Hope

— Contax 35mm. photos, Alex. H. Washburn

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, THE WHITE SAND beaches and a major salt water aquarium of the North Florida Coast are only a day's drive from Hope. It is 558 miles by way of Monroe, Vicksburg,

Jackson and Mobile to Fort Walton Beach, where these photographs were made by the editor. PICTURE AT THE LEFT SHOWS THE STAR porpoise of the Florida Gulfarium going 20 feet in the air to pick a dried fish out of her trainer's mouth.

Susie Q is a smart athlete. Knowing the job ahead, she backs up to the far side of the aquarium and gets a running start to hurl her 200 pounds into the wild blue yonder. The whole trick hinges on a porpoise's swimming speed — the U. S. Navy has clocked porpoises in the open sea at 45 miles an hour.

RIGHT PHOTO IS CLOSEUP OF A MALE PORPOISE with the fish he has just taken from the trainer's hand.

MARITIME LEGEND IS ENACTED IN PHOTO at the left. For thousands of years the men who sail the world's ships have sworn that porpoises have been known to push a sailor ashore to escape drowning. Thus, in this aquarium shot, a porpoise dutifully pushes a life ring holding a doll toward the tank's landing stage. This may be only a sailor's legend — but it is a fact that where porpoises are plentiful sharks are scarce. When a porpoise discovers a shark he puts out a radar signal that summons help, and the gang butt the shark into head-long flight.

IN PICTURE AT THE RIGHT YOU ARE BEING eyed through a port-hole at the bottom of the tank by the monstrous head of a 400-pound sea turtle. He's a tough customer to photograph because, unlike the porpoise, he doesn't have to come up for air — and he is always sinking away out of camera range to snooze on the bottom.

THE FORT WALTON AQUARIUM EXHIBITION tank has six porpoises and two turtles. Its walls are perpendicular — and this thought struck your editor: If porpoises have to have air every 60 seconds how do they sleep? The girls at the ticket office already had the solution. They got up early one morning and caught all six porpoises asleep — their heads flat on top of the water, the rest of them hanging down like neckties. On the flat of their heads is a poppet-valve through which they breathe, and which snaps shut at the touch of water. Thus the mammal whale and his porpoise cousin are able to sleep through an ocean storm.

Asks Power to Call Up Reservists

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's request for standby authority to muster 150,000 reservists has run into demands by Republican senators for tougher and more specific action.

The Kennedy request has been carried by a harsh jettisoning the amendments for request for the authority was prompted by the international situation without sending out specific areas.

planned to ram it through the Senate today after a quick debate. But a flurry of GOP amendments, calling for strong action against Cuba or against any other Communist moves, has been tossed in the works and may brake the measure's momentum.

Faced with new proposals, Mansfield sidetracked temporarily the call-up bill. Instead of putting it at the top of the agenda, he scheduled in its place the $500-million mass transportation bill.

Evidently he hoped to use the time to work out a procedure for jettisoning the amendments for request for the authority was prompted by the international situation without sending out specific areas.

Services committees for later consideration.

Mansfield said he still expects the Senate to approve the stand-by authority before quitting time tonight.

The measure would permit President Kennedy to call up 150,000 members of the ready reserve without a declaration of a national emergency. Under present law, the President can mobilize up to 1 million members of the ready reserve if he declares an emergency.

Administration sources said the request for the authority was prompted by the international situation without sending out specific areas.

But indications were that the President was more concerned with the Berlin situation than with the Communist flow of supplies and men to Cuba.

But it has been Cuba—and so-called "victims" over the Communist outposts—that has attracted most of the fire in Congress.

Wednesday Secretary of State Dean Rusk assured a joint session of the House Foreign Affairs and Armed Services committees the administration would not tolerate having Cuba become a base for the launching of attacks against the United States or any Western Hemisphere area.

On the House side today, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was scheduled to testify for the reserve measure before the Armed Services Committee. This group recently criticized the Pentagon's handling of the call-up during last year's Berlin crisis.

On another front, a State Department spokesman said the United States is investigating a claim by an anti-Castro organization that it was responsible for a machinegun attack on three vessels in Cuban waters.

The organization calls itself Alpha and says its headquarters are in Puerto Rico, a U.S. territory.

Bids Taken on Federal Land

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department said Wednesday it received high bids totaling $8,017, for oil and gas leasing of two tracts on federal land in Arkansas.

The two tracts are located in the Kibler-Williams field in Sebastian County and total 248.93 acres. They lie about two miles east of Fort Smith.

High bidder at $1,371, for a parcel of land of about 3 acres was W. R. Stephens. Gulf Oil Co. of Oklahoma City bid $6,646 for the other tract.

An annual rental fee of $2 an acre will be collected by the government if it approves the lease offer. Royalties will be payable at a rate of 12½ to 25 per cent for oil and 12½ to 2-3 per cent for gas.

Jones Outlines His Platform

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Dr. Kenneth Jones, Republican opponent of Sen. J. William Fulbright, outlined an 18-point platform in officially opening his campaign here Wednesday night. Jones spent the day in Fort Smith at a series of coffee and dinner Friday night.

soft drink parties in his honor, then spoke at night to a reception sponsored by the Fort Smith Republican Women's club.

Among points in his platform were passage of right to work laws, reduction of foreign aid, an expanded Un-American Activities Committee, reduction of the national debt, local school controls, local medical care by local governments, mineral depletion allowances for Arkansas and states rights legislation.

Jones was to spend today in Fort Smith, then return to Little Rock tonight. He was to be in Fayetteville Friday and in Springfield Saturday to speak at a fund-raising event.

Ordeal at Comanche Wells

By Benjamin F. Capps

THE STORY: While trying to get a rancher named Long to help out the sheriff during the trouble at Comanche Wells, Youngblood recognized Long's foreman Burge as one of the men who tried to release Bill Ivey from jail. Burge challenges Youngblood, who is determined not to be pushed around.

"I'm going to teach a deputy sheriff not to go out in the country by his self," Burge bragged, starting his rush before he got the words out and before the deputy had straightened up.

Youngblood slid backward and caught him with a solid right into the side, then straightened himself on the balls of his feet.

Burge bellowed and came in with his arms high, like a bear, taking all he had to take to close with the deputy. Youngblood landed two glancing blows before he backed into the rump of a spooking saddle horse, and trying to avoid a possible flying hoof, tumbled backward into the dirt. He was rolling when Burge came down on him. The man was sure enough as strong as a yearling bull, and almost as heavy. The deputy was halfway pinned, and took a big knee in his own belly before he could find his feet again. He knew then that it might cost him his life to be pinned on the ground by the heavy man.

Burge came at him again, fists flying. Youngblood ducked and dodged, but found it almost impossible to block the powerful man's blows. He took one in the left eye that caused him to flash lights and a glancing blow on the cheek. It stung and he knew that he had lost some skin. But it was the kind of fight he wanted. He danced in and out, and once again, coming out of a low crouch, he dug the right into the side. Burge dropped his left arm to cover the tender place, his face wincing with pain, and rushed in again to close. Youngblood uncorked the right again. It struck the big man in the throat, under the chin. He reeled backward off his feet.

When Burge came up his eyes were glassy. Youngblood felt no pity about it.

The big hulk of a man might have quit had there been no witnesses, but he came in, still grasping, having forgotten about his side. Youngblood stepped in to meet him this time and hit him in the same place under the left arm. Burge groaned, "You've busted me in!" and stumbled against the horse trough. Then he slowly slid down into the mud, unconscious.

As Youngblood buckled on his gun, he saw his arms and hands trembling like leaves of grass in gusty wind. The old man was saying, "Deputy, get on your horse and get out of here," and to the other cowpoke, "Get some water on him. Stretch him out and get some water on him."

The sheriff was talking with Youngblood about the Mexican gunman who had been in town three days now without anybody finding out where he came from or what his purpose was. But even as they sat there, a knock came at the open door of the sheriff's office, and they looked up to see the object of their conversation standing before them.

He had his wide-brimmed hat in his hand. The brown skin of his awkward face was wrinkled, but his hair, which was plastered down, and his long thin mustache were pure black, with no gray.

His dark eyes darted about constantly, searching. He wore no gun.

"Might I see Senor Ivey?" he asked the sheriff. He seemed to be in no uncertainty about whom to ask.

"Who are you?" the sheriff asked.

"Torres, Senor Sheriff. I am his friend."

"What do you want to see Ivey

Haiti Now Threatening to Kick U. S.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Haiti's government, like a spanked child, is threatening to kick Uncle Sam in the shins.

Uncle Sam, in effect, has deprived him of his candy — and Papa Doc, according to responsible people who claim to have heard him say it, intends to "bring President Kennedy to his knees."

Papa Doc is the name many of the four million Negroes in the French-speaking nation apply to Dr. Francis Duvalier, their iron-fisted dictator-president. His regime is rapidly making progress backward. He is asking for trouble and seems likely to get it.

This storm in the Caribbean, blowing up for months, is worrisome because Cuba is only 50 miles away.

U.S. economic aid was suspended when Washington despaired of finding logic in the Duvalier regime. Military aid also has been halted. The regime, buzzing like an angry bee deprived of its nest, rolls its eyes speculatively toward Moscow. Rumors are dropped in Washington, evidently by paid lobbyists, that the 55-year-old dictator has lost patience and will punish the Americans.

In reality, Duvalier fears the Communists. Cautiously he grants a little latitude to a few highly placed men with extreme leftist leanings. But he remains nervously alert to any sign of overt Communist activity.

Broadcasts berate the United States with brave, defiant-sounding talk. One gets the impression that Dr. Duvalier is a frightened man. His sole ambition seems to be to keep himself in power. He maintains a harsh gun rule, a perpetual state of siege.

Most Haitians are too involved with scratching out a living to pay much attention to politics. The per-capita income equals about $70 a year, making Haiti, among the oldest and smallest republics of the hemisphere, also its poorest. Ninety per cent are illiterate. Opposition is beginning to grow among the 10 per cent who can read and write.

A coffee republic with an agricultural economy, Haiti is hardly ready for modern democracy. Perhaps the best it can hope for is a benevolent strongman. The United States turned sour on Duvalier not because he is a dictator but because he attempted to use U.S. aid for political aggrandizement. He rejected checks on use of dollar funds for various aid projects. Today, only the old Point 4 malaria control program is continuing.

Duvalier reflects Haiti's history of political chaos. It was so dangerous in 1915 that the United States sent Marines to restore order. They remained until 1934.

Duvalier became president in a 1957 election denounced as fraudulent by his opposition. The physician-politician, who had close ties with Americans as a medical campaigner against tropical diseases, was supported by a military junta and declared president before long he, like many before him, took on the trappings of a dictator.

He remained loudly pro-American, however, even to the extent of inviting the Marines to return and train his army. Most of the help was in the noncombatant field—medical services, transport, communications, repair services. Duvalier's own policies impeded the program and may be wrecking his own army, one of the few stable forces in the nation.

about?"
"I would want to tell him good-by."

The Mexican's answers were simple and straightforward, but they told nothing.

"Mr. Torres," the sheriff said finally, "you can see Ivey, but not right now. Come back at three o'clock."

The Mexican bowed without a word and left.

"I have an idea, Youngblood," the sheriff said. "Go get Slim. He's out at the corral."

Youngblood brought the other deputy into the office. The sheriff asked Slim, "How good can you speak Spanish, Slim?"
"Good enough to get by. I guess. I know all the cuss words."

"All right. I've told that Mex he can see Ivey. I'm sure Ivey can talk Spanish, and I bet my left leg he'll let them rip. No matter what they do, I want you to take him up there, and if they start talking Spanish, you just stand there like you don't give a hoot. You just let them rip. No matter what they say, don't give a sign you understand. Just let them talk all they want to. Be sure and don't say any Spanish words yourself. You just stand there and whistle a little and clean your fingernails—they need it anyway."

Spa Census Gain Was Only 864

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A preliminary report from a special census sets Hot Springs' population at 29,201, a gain of 864 since the 1960 regular census, Mayor Dan Wolf said today.

This will mean $6,048 a year more for the city in state turn-back funds, beginning next year. The special census cost $5,000.

City officials said they were disappointed the special census did not show a greater gain, but they were glad of the increase and the additional funds due the city.

Turnback is figured on $7 per person a year.

Wolf said city officials had until Sept. 14 to report any residents the census might have missed.

AEA May Not Support Its Own Act

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A possibility that the Arkansas Education Association may not vigorously support its own school financing act loomed today.

The question was raised after a communique from AEA headquarters to board members and district officers fell into the hands of newsmen.

The letter, apparently prepared by AEA Executive Secretary Forrest Rozzell, noted that Gov. Orval E. Faubus and the state Board of Education may oppose the proposal, Initiated Act 1. It asked what should be done if such opposition develops.

Faubus has been cool to the act while not taking a stand against it. The state board also declined to take a firm stand but some members said they opposed it.

Nobody was discussing the matter openly.

The AEA letter said Faubus was believed to be preparing an alternate proposal which would cover some points of the AEA act.

Included with the letter was a message from Joshua K. Shepherd, chairman of the Committee for Public Schools, who urge AEA members to push Act 1.

Shepherd's committee was instrumental in circulation of petitions which put Act 1 on the November election ballot.

The act would allocate a minimum of 50 per cent of general revenue to the public school fund. It also would remove some educational programs, such as vocational training, as obligations of the Public School Fund.

East German Swims to Safety

BERLIN (AP)—A 21-year-old man swam 300 yards to the safety of West Berlin today, despite gun fire from East German police.

The dramatic escape—the fifth of the day—occurred at 8:30 a.m. near the old Reichstag building. Jumping from the Marshall Bridge, the young man swam along the east bank of the Spree River, apparently escaping detection until he was ready to swim across. Four shots were fired at him, West Berlin police said, but all missed.

Secret Group Claims Ship Shelling

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Alpha 6, a secret organization pledged to overthrow Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime, claims it carried out a machine gun attack on three vessels in Cuban waters.

After the hit-and-run attack Monday, Alpha 6 said, its raiding party succeeded in turning back Castro helicopters following a 40-mile chase.

Members of Alpha 6, which has its headquarters in Puerto Rico, have not been identified, but one in Miami said five men inside the raid.

In a communique signed "Alpha 66, Puerto Rico," the group said it in a machine gunned two Cuban ships, the San Pascual and the San Blas, and a British freighter, the Newlane.

Havana sources, which claimed the marauder came from the United States, said the San Pascual and the Newlane were attacked, but did not mention the San Blas. No casualties were reported.

Refugee leaders in Miami said the raiding party sailed from Venezuela and a spokesman said there was no return fire from Castro forces.

The attack occurred about dawn at Cape Frances, a small key across from Calbarien, a major port about 210 miles southeast of Havana.

The Alpha 66 communique said the attack lasted 50 minutes and added: "Helicopters of the Castro regime pursued the Cubans for 40 miles on the high seas, the chase culminating in a naval battle in which the Communists quickly withdrew."

The raiders returned safely to a place in the Caribbean which is a base of Alpha 66 operations, the San Blas, and a British freighter, the Newlane.

Negro Charged in Icepick Slaying

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—Roosevelt Holman, a 3-year-old Negro of Louise, was bound over to circuit court Tuesday on a murder charge in the icepick slaying of Eli Houston, about 56, also a Louise Negro, Sunday.

Holman pleaded guilty on arraignment in municipal court. Officers said the slaying occurred about 2 p.m. Sunday. Holman was arrested six hours later.

The Newlane, a vessel flying the British flag which was loaded with sugar for the Communist countries, was machine gunned intensely. The San Pascual, commandeered by a Communist, was used as a depot for molasses and ice.

The dispatch said the San Blas was hit by 18 bullets and the British vessel was struck 13 times.

Business Depends on Point of View

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Business is good and improving. Or business isn't good enough and that spells trouble. It all depends on your point of view.

About all that everyone has to admit is that, over all, conditions aren't bad at all and that a lot of people did a lot of unnecessary worrying.

The end-of-summer figures popping up almost daily aren't too much help, because either side can quote them to bolster its point. But some of the figures are a surprise, such as the improvement in manufacturers' profits.

Most of the statistics show business improving. And yet most of them fall short of earlier hopes expressed in official quarters.

That's the rub. This falling short has caused much of the queasiness in the stock market, uncertainty in corporate boardrooms, and consumer perplexity.

Yet the figures show personal incomes are higher, profits have increased, jobs are at a record high and retail sales are up.

Plans for the fall season are mostly on the optimistic side. Expansion and modernization programs are being announced with fair regularity, and some by industries that only a few weeks back were complaining the most of slack times, the profit squeeze, foreign competition, and poor prospects.

Profits after taxes of manufacturing companies in the second quarter were the second best on record, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Federal Trade Commission reports. At $4.6 billion they were up 1.6 percent from the first quarter and surpassed only by the $4.9 billion in 1959's second quarter.

The same reports put manufacturing sales at a record $99.1 billion, up 7 percent from the first quarter. Business leaders, however, stress that while sales hit a peak, profits were only second best. But the fact that they rose sharply from the first quarter surprised many who had been forecasting doom.

Profits before taxes of all corporations, including the manufacturing segment, hit an annual rate of $50.9 billion in the second quarter, some $800 million higher than in the first quarter. The record was set in the second quarter of 1959 at $51.5 billion.

In announcing these figures the Department of Commerce noted that the second quarter gain this year still left profits far short of the $5.5 billion goal which official Washington had set in January. The shortness has hurt business confidence, and also U.S. Treasury expectations of corporate income tax collections.

The Labor Department reports that nonfarm jobs rose 225,000 in August to a record of 55,744,000. But again the rise was short of expectations. This was due in part to layoffs in the auto industry for model changeovers.

Factory work weeks averaged out to 40.4 hours. But seasonally adjusted this was six-tenths of an hour less than in April.

Still the total of wage and salary incomes rose $300 million in August, and other categories added $600 million to bring the annual rate to $442.8 billion, a record.

All of this adds up to prosperity. But important voices say it isn't prosperity enough.

One is the administration, which wants its January goals reached—sometime, if belatedly.

Another is organized labor, which says the unemployment rate of more than 5 percent of the labor force is intolerable. It wants the standard work week dropped from 40 hours to 35, saying this would mean more jobs.

Something to Rainmaking

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The National Science Foundation said Tuesday it considered "weather modification," its term for rainmaking, highly feasible.

The topic became almost a controversy in Arkansas last month when Maj. Homer Berry, a retired Air Force officer, swept through the state in a series of rainmaking engagements.

Berry uncanonically predicted the time of an inch and a half of rain at Little Rock following a long dry spell, then accepted contracts to aid other areas suffering from a near drought.

Berry has since retired, but rainmaking continued a timely topic in the state.

The NSF said in its third annual report that weather modification is becoming increasingly more probable. The workhorse chemical used in the venture, silver iodide, is the one Berry used. But the NSF says its limitations are unknown and this could result.

Research on the subject by universities, private firms and government agencies is being financed with federal funds, the NSF said.

Commissioners Name 3rd Member

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Board of Election Commissioners named Tuesday the third member of each of Arkansas' 75 county commissions.

In three counties, Searcy, Greene and Stone, disputes between factions petitioning for different candidates were settled. Usually, the board follows local recommendations in filling the vacancies.

In Searcy County the board named Carry Gray of Marshall. It also had a petition to name John Cash of Pindall. Leon Branscum of Mountain View was chosen over J. C. Dobbins of Allison in Stone County and Elmer McManey of Marmaduke was named over Hoyt B. Marshall, also of Marmaduke, in Greene County.

In Crawford County, where no recommendation had been received, Harold Ballentine of Alma was named.

The other two members of the

Another Victim

CORNING, Ark. (AP)—The death of Carol Davis, 49, of Corning brought to three the number of victims of an Aug. 30 traffic accident near here, state police said Tuesday. Killed in the accident were Mrs. Maud Leonard, 69 of Knobel in Clay County and Larry Dale Tyler, 20, of Corning.

county election commissions are the chairmen of the Republican and Democratic parties in that county.

Students Riot

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Student riots in Yemen and demonstrations against Imam Ahmied, autocratic ruler of the primitive Arabian kingdom, were reported today.

The colorful old Ghost Town of Rush, Arkansas, located near Buffalo river state park, is finding at its decrepit doors the cars of the curious. Rush, once a booming zinc mining town with a population of 5,000, now has only six inhabitants.

Strike Threat on Space Jobs Continues

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The gravity of strike threats against major aerospace producers appeared to deepen today in the wake of a White House settlement plan calling for adoption of a union shop.

The four firms involved—Lockheed, Convair, North American and Ryanair—were talking at the plan, particularly the union shop requirement that would compel all their more than 100,000 workers to be union members.

Time was running out with a no-strike pledge given President Kennedy by the AFL-CIO auto-workers and machinists unions due to expire on Sept. 22.

In Los Angeles, both unions reported contract negotiations still hopelessly deadlocked and set Sept. 22 as a new strike date.

A new dispute was fast shaping up at Boeing, another key space, missile and planemaker for the government.

The White House made public Tuesday night the settlement plan devised for the four firms by a fact-finding board.

The panel stipulated the union shop arrangement would be conditioned on a two-thirds ratifying vote of affected workers.

Kennedy, on a tour of missile and space installations, said at Houston that the companies and unions should use the board's findings as the basis for settling the labor contract disputes without strikes. "They have a duty to the country," the President said.

But it was reported that negotiators for the four firms and two unions have packed up and left Washington without any immediate intention of resuming talks.

Senate Has Confirmed Marshall

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has voted 54 to 1 to confirm Thurgood Marshall as a judge on the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals after Southerners fired a final fusillade in opposition to the Negro lawyer's appointment.

At his New York apartment, where his family gathered to celebrate the action, Marshall said: "I appreciate the nomination by President Kennedy and the confirmation by the Senate. I will do my level best to live up to their expectations."

The vote Tuesday came after five hours of debate and weeks of hearings on his qualifications for the second highest level judicial post in the land. Thirty Democrats and 24 Republicans voted to approve the confirmation. The 16 ways were cast by Southern Democrats from nine states opposing civil rights legislation.

The Dixie group charged that Marshall, former counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, lacked legal experience outside the field of civil rights. Marshall successfully prosecuted

Skyscraper for Memphis Planned

MEMPHIS (AP)—Plans have been announced for a new skyscraper here that would be Tennessee's tallest and have a revolving restaurant on top.

Bloomfield Building Industries Inc. announced revised plans to erect a 32-story structure instead of a 22-story. It would cost $5 million.

Plans call for a restaurant on the roof set on a revolving platform to give diners a panoramic view of the city. There also would be a swimming pool with removable roof on the 32nd floor.

No date was set for beginning of actual construction but clearing of the site is expected to begin next week.

Crises Looms for Britain's Macmillan

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—A major crisis loomed today for Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative government after a concerted Commonwealth revolt against Macmillan's plan to join the European Common Market.

Statesmen of at least five countries lined up to back the massive assault launched Tuesday by eight of their fellow leaders against the prospective terms of Britain's linkup with the six-nation continental bloc.

Only the delegates from Malaysia and Cyprus were believed likely to withhold outright censure of Macmillan's policy.

In the face of the demonstrations of overwhelming anxiety, Macmillan ran the risk of imperiling his government if he presses on with his plan.

The British leader has pledged he will take Britain into the European trading and political community only after winning safeguards for the economic interests of his Commonwealth partners. But almost a man the leaders of Canada, Pakistan, Ceylon, New Zealand, India, Ghana, Sierra Leone and Australia denounced as unsatisfactory the safeguards negotiated so far.

They also criticized other aspects of the projected arrangements. Nigeria, Tanganyika, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, and the Central African Federation were expected to join in the attack today.

Ashley Co. Bonds

HAMBURG, Ark. (AP)—A $340,000 bond issue was passed by Ashley County voters to finance construction of a plant for a garment factory here. The unofficial vote was 1,826 for to 996 against in returns from 26 to 28 boxes. The plant would be built for lease to I. J. Bernstein & Son Mfg. Co. The plant would be built for lease of New York and the issue would be retired in 20 years. If defaulted, a one-mill tax would go into effect. The firm said it would eventually employ 500 persons, mostly women.

Insects Fond of the Fall Vegetables

Insects are as fond of fall vegetables as you, says Calvin Caldwell, county agent. "All late summer and fall vegetables are subject to attack by at least one damaging insect," he said.

Fall beans and southern peas are usually heavily infested with corn earworm. According to Mr. Caldwell, these worms feed on the pod and may destroy the crop.

DDT and Sevin are recommended for control. Application of dust or spray should begin when pods form and be continued at seven day intervals to one week of picking.

Greens crops are subject to attack by aphids or plant lice and several different caterpillars. Aphids develop very rapidly, clustering on the underside of the leaves.

Urges Flu Shots

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dr. Ben N. Saltzman, president of the Arkansas Tuberculosis Association, urged Monday that all persons with lung ailments be vaccinated immediately against influenza. Saltzman said the Public Health Service has warned there may be a widespread flu outbreak this winter and such persons may suffer serious consequences if they catch the respiratory disease.

where they suck sap from the plant. Caterpillars feed on leaves and stems and may eat the whole plant. Home gardeners should use malathion, while parathion is more practical in commercial greens fields.

The great majority of American Indians learned the practice of scalping their slain foes from the white man. Scalping spread rapidly among Indians when European rivals in the Northeast began offering bounties for enemy trophies.

Boost Given to Morale of Castro

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest Soviet nuclear war warning today reads more like a statement to bolster the morale of the Fidel Castro government in Cuba than to intimidate the United States.

Whatever view Moscow and Washington may take, Castro and his followers may be seriously worried about the possibility of some new, strongly supported invasion attempt now that they are openly taking Soviet military assistance.

The White House and the State Department withheld immediate comment on the Soviet blast.

But in the circumstances, some such statement as that which the Moscow government issued today would be welcomed in Havana. It might very well have been asked by Havana because of recent anti-Castro developments in Washington.

This is not the first time that such a device has been used by the Soviet Union. In the closing months of the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration Premier Khrushchev personally threatened on more than one occasion to use Soviet rockets against the United States if this country committed aggression against Cuba.

What may be significant about it now, however, is that it seems to mark a further decline in the American-Soviet relationship already heavily strained by such events as the unsuccessful efforts to find a settlement for the Soviet-Western dispute over Berlin.

One hint that Khrushchev intends to keep the new round of angry argument within bounds, however, came in reference to Berlin.

The statement, referring to the forthcoming U.S. congressional elections, said the Soviet govern-

Oral Vaccine Drive Started

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Medical Society's statewide Sabin oral polio vaccine drive will be kicked off Friday night at a dinner in Little Rock. The society hopes to immunize every person in Arkansas against polio through a series of clinics which begin Sept. 30. The vaccine will be administered in lumps of sugar.

Donations of 25 cents will be asked for each of the three doses, but the society has said no one would be turned away who couldn't pay.

Dr. Albert Sabin, who invented the vaccine, has been invited to attend the dinner. Gov. Orval E. Faubus and the president of the American Medical Association also have been invited.

Actress Expecting

LONDON (AP)—Actress Nancy Kwan said today she is expecting a baby next April.

The 23-year-old star of "Suzy Wong" is the wife of Peter Pock, 22, an Austrian hotel keeper.

Five to Be Tried

LIEGE, Belgium (AP)—Five persons, alleged to have taken part in killing a malformed baby girl last May, are to be tried before a Liege jury, the investigating court announced today.

The trial is expected to open in November.

The baby's mother said she took the drug thalidomide during pregnancy.

The oral vaccine, has been invited to attend the dinner. Gov. Orval E. Faubus and the president of the American Medical Association also have been invited.

Butterscotch Crowns The Cake

When you're expecting a gathering of the clan—friends, relatives or neighbors—treat them to an old Scottish favorite, a butterscotch frosted cake. As traditionally Scotch as the thistle, butterscotch has a sweet mellowness all its own, and the tawny frosting lends opulence to the simplest cake.

With butterscotch morsels, you can whip up a light and delicious frosting in minutes. Thanks to the morsels, the frosting captures all the old-fashioned butterscotch flavor while by-passing all the old-fashioned risk of burning sugar. Make your cake from a mix if you're short of time, and just blend the easy-melting butterscotch morsels with cream cheese and confectioners' sugar for the frosting. To give the cake a special flair, set a tiara of walnuts into frosting swirls around the top.

Creamy Butterscotch Frosting
1 1/2 cups package (1 cup) 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups butterscotch morsels 2 1/4 cups sifted cream cheese 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar (approximately)

Blend butterscotch morsels over hot (not boiling) water in cream cheese and salt. Stir in melted morsels until smooth. Gradually beat in sugar until of spreading consistency.

Yield: Frosting for two 8 or 9-inch cake layers.

A Ft. Chaffee soldier has found a talent in developing a talent to aid in his vocation.

Though not an Arkansan, his story began in the state.

Bob Pope decided less than three years ago to teach himself how to play the guitar as an aid to his work in social welfare. The new found talent blossomed and recently he found himself playing a concert in Tulsa.

He is now on the brink of a career, if he decides to take it, in full time music.

In Jonesboro, another in-state, out-of-state tale appears.

When a gospel meeting closed in the city, its conductors decided to leave their tent there—all 35 tons of it. John P. Fogarty, director of the evangelistic effort, disclosed that it just wasn't practical to take the equipment with him where he was going—to Panama, Christobel, the Caribbean Sea and European points.

A companion evangelist, Ermon Bain, will work in Tennessee and Alabama.

The two will return to Jonesboro in January, retrieve their tent and start anew together.

In Texarkana, Alex. Smith, a Miller County rancher and oil man, celebrated his 100th birthday in style. He held a big barbecue for friends from Louisiana, Texas, Mexico, California and, of course, Arkansas.

Smith, still mentally alert, recalls that his father was a Lincoln man and didn't believe in slavery. Smith can tell many interesting tales about ranching in the south-west.

He spends summers on his Miller County ranch and winters at a Tampico, Mexico, home even though partially confined to a wheelchair from a broken leg suffered in a 1957 accident.

For the Batesville Water Carnival Water Queens, locks are the key to things. Literally.

While in Washington, at the Sheraton Park Hotel, they found themselves confined in their room by a broken lock.

A gentleman strolling down the corridor sensed their distress and came to their aid.

He was an official of the Lebanese Embassy, attending a dinner party at the hotel.

Elizabeth Thomason, one of the queens, wrote her mother, "This ambassador invited us to come and have dinner. We had dinner with (to name a few) the ambassador from Syria, the secretary of the Indonesian Embassy and the Iraqi and Iranian Embassies, the patriarch of Indonesia, the consulate of Lebanon and one of President Kennedy's right-hand translators."

Thompson Named

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — R. L. Thompson was named president of the Arkansas Telephone Association Tuesday night. Thompson, of Fort Smith, will succeed Milton Caldwell of Texarkana. He was named to the post during the association's 35th annual convention.

Seek Action on Buildup in Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Republicans asked the Senate today to tack pledges for action against the Communist military buildup in Cuba onto President Kennedy's request for standby authority to call up 150,000 military reservists.

Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, first offered an amendment which would direct the President to enforce the Monroe Doctrine against the Communist dominated regime of Fidel Castro.

Sen. Prescott Bush, R-Conn., offered an alternate amendment which would express the sense of Congress that the United States "has the right and obligation" to end Communist domination of Cuba, either with cooperation of other Western hemisphere nations, or alone if necessary.

The amendments appeared likely to stir up sharp Senate debate and opposition of administration leaders who have slated the reservist bill for debate and passage Thursday.

Bush, a member of the Senate Armed Service Committee, told the Senate his amendment "would give notice to the world that the Congress not only supports the President by giving him authority to call up ready reservists, but also stands firmly behind the commander-in-chief in whatever actions he decides to be necessary to meet the threat to the people and the security of the Western hemisphere arising from the Communist takeover in Cuba."

"Its adoption would put the Soviet Union on notice that the American people, as represented by their Congress, are not intimidated by saber-rattling statements such as that issued in Moscow yesterday," Bush said. "Its adoption would put Mr. Khrushchev on notice that the Monroe Doctrine is not dead, but remains an integral part of American foreign policy and will be enforced."

Without naming Cuba, the Miller amendment lists a series of developments in U.S.-Cuban relations and continues:

"The President of the United States is hereby authorized and directed to take such action as is necessary to prevent any violation of the Monroe Doctrine."

For nearly 150 years the Monroe Doctrine has pledged this country to oppose efforts by any foreign power to interfere in the Western hemisphere.

Some Republicans contend it should be used more directly to halt the Communist buildup in Cuba but Kennedy and his supporters insist it is being and will be followed.

Casserole Cuts Cooking Corners

Here's good menu news: a glamorous tuna casserole topped with crisp chow mein noodles. Canned tuna, which requires no preparation, joins forces with other convenience foods to give you a choreless one-dish meal. When the casserole comes out of the oven, you'll enjoy the happy flavor balance of tuna with the sweetness of peas, the mild tang of pimiento and the pungent mushroom soup which blends the ingredients together. The noodles, of course, provide a pleasant texture contrast.

And here's good nutrition news: this tuna casserole not only gives you satisfying flavor and saves you work but supplies exceptionally fine nutrition values as well. Tuna goes to the head of the protein class for high protein content and low calories. It has valuable minerals and vitamins, too. And the vegetable oil in which tuna is packed, combined with the natural tuna oil, contributes desirable polyunsaturates to your diet.

Tuna Chow Mein Casserole

1 can undiluted cream of mushroom soup 1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 can (1 pound) peas 1 can (3 ounces) chow mein noodles
1 can (4 ounces) pimiento, diced 2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna in vegetable oil
2 tablespoons chopped onion

Combine undiluted soup, peas with liquid from can, pimiento, onion and lemon juice in a 1 1/2 quart casserole. Set aside 1 cup of the noodles. Fold remaining noodles and tuna into mixture in casserole. Arrange reserved noodles around edge. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 25 minutes.

Yield: 5 servings.

Fulbright Wants Action on Cuba

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Kenneth Jones, Republican opponent of Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said Tuesday it is time for action in Cuba and he did not think Russia would retaliate.

At a news conference Jones said "I do not anticipate that Russia would precipitate an all-out nuclear war over this island any more than I would anticipate we (The United States) would precipitate a nuclear war over a jungle on the coast of southeast Asia."

If Russia is not bluffing, he said, it is time the issue was met head-on.

He called for a blockade of all consumer goods to Cuba except food and medical supplies.

Monday, Fulbright said at a news conference the United States should take no military action against Cuba now. Such action, he said, would cause unfavorable reaction toward the United States in the Latin American and Caribbean areas.

The tense situation has caused Russia to warn that an attack on Cuba would be the beginning of a conflict that might turn into a world nuclear war.

In Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk replied that America is not frightened but is a "great country" that will "proceed as we find it necessary."

Fulbright said it would be little trouble to overrun Cuba, but it would only give the communists a propaganda weapon. He said suggested the Cubans are "falling flat on their face where the world can see."

Jones told newsmen he favored a six-point program advocated by Democratic Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut.

Dodd's program seeks a declaration of freedom and independence for Cuba, establishment and recognition of an anti-communist Cuban government in exile, a total embargo against communist shipment of military personnel and materials to the country, intensified propaganda urging Cubans to liberate themselves, a total blockade, if necessary, on all shipments to Cuba other than food and consumer goods and assistance to Cuban freedom fighters.

The candidate opens his campaign Wednesday at Fort Smith.

Faubus' Foe Takes Drive to Pine Bluff

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Republican gubernatorial candidate Willis Ricketts of Fayetteville, his voice hoarse from campaigning, outlined his platform and policies to supporters here Tuesday night.

Ricketts spoke at a meeting sponsored by the Jefferson County Republican Committee.

He told his audience that he had heard voters discuss merits of both the GOP and the Democratic candidates in the November general election. If Arkansas voters are honest with themselves, he said, the Republican party will shine in November.

Ricketts said the Democratic party has failed to issue statements of principles as the Republicans have and charged that they have not protected the sanctity of the individual vote.

He called for his opponent in the general election, Gov. Orval E. Faubus, and the Democratic party to work for voting machine laws and a party registration system.

State conducted or supervised primaries under a two-party system are needed, he said, and would eliminate what he termed machine politics in some areas.

The candidate said he was ready to introduce legislation for the new voting method if he is elected.

Reviewing his platform, Ricketts said he was for:

Putting the teacher retirement system on a funded basis, favor technical schooling being administered by state supported junior colleges, a program to lend money to teachers who want to further their education, a farmers' market to obtain higher prices and protect what he termed "trade rights."

He also said he favored unity of purpose among state agencies, chambers of commerce and utilities in seeking industry, obtaining more matching funds for federal welfare funds, a bi-partisan commission to analyze the state's system of agencies and commissions and a single four-year gubernatorial term.

CAMP EDWARDS, Mass. (AP) —The last of 82 Negro "Reverse Freedom Riders" sent to Cape Cod this past summer have been found permanent homes. Felix Johnson, 37, his wife and two children were moved out of Camp Edwards Saturday and driven to Boston, where welfare officials had found them a home. They had been in Cape Cod since Aug. 27. The 82 riders came from Arkansas, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana.
